Evan and I thank you for the wonderful gifts and words you shared with us for Pastor Appreciation. These past two years have been unbelievable for both of us. It has been a time of healing, challenge and excitement as we walk on this amazing journey only God can provide. Thank you again for the love, care and encouragement we feel everyday.

Wendy and Evan Sorvik

God Bless your generosity. There is a word/digital snap shot in 1 Corinthians 16, of a man named Stephenas and his household. He was one of the first converts in the Greek Peninsula as Paul preached. "He and his 'troop' have devoted themselves to the service of the Saints." Later Paul says: "I was glad when Stephanas (and his friends) arrived, because they have supplied what was lacking from you. For they refreshed my spirit and yours also." I marvel at how you, as our church family, are more and more like the house of Stephenas--blessing and refreshing others by your giving of gifts of generosity. Thank you for making Judith and me a part of that blessing! It is so great to serve the Lord. Thank you!
