Covenant Express
items due!

We want to thank our church family for prayers, concern, and support after Lowell had his accident during the annual meeting. We praise God that there seems to be no lingering effects from his head injury! He has one more test to go, an EEG. God is good and we feel supported and loved by all of you. Thank you.
Randy, Ramona, and Lowell Rice

Dear Covenant Movers,
Deep gratitude and relief were some of my feelings as you all pulled away from my home on Jan. 11th. I am so thankful for each of you and your service in the Covenant Movers ministry. It has always been humbling to be in need of help, but for some reason, when I'm able to receive assistance from people who are serving the body of Christ, I am much more at ease. Thank you for trekking way out in the county...for all the lifting, carrying and manuevering...and for your kindness in the process. Please accept this check toward your building fund, as a small token of my sincere appreciation.
Thanking God for each of you,
Jill Bexell

We continue to accept donations for the Haiti Relief Fund. All donations are being used by Pastor Caleb through his organization (Hosean International Ministries) to feed, clothe, house and provide medical supplies for the displaced people of Port au Prince. Make checks out to Moose Lake Covenant Church and write in the memo "Haiti Relief Fund".

Please Recycle! Bring in your newspapers and phone books.
(no magazines)
There is a bin in the hall between the new and old buildings.
