Operation Bare Your Bookshelf

The resources that are desperately needed in the developing church already exist but they are gathering dust on the bookshelves of American Christians. Won't you "bare your bookshelf" and send a Bible to those who will use them? Christian Resources International (CRI) is a 50-year old ministry that enables American Christians to send their used Bibles to English-speaking recipients in the more than 180 countries. Please join the Compassion, Mercy and Justice team in supporting CRI. We will be collecting new and used (good condition) Bibles for CRI. There will be a book shelf display in the narthex through March 28. You may drop off Bibles (Bible only) at the display at any time. If you wish to provide monetary donations for shipping to CRI please see Robin or Lisa Mathews.

Haiti Relief Fund

We continue to accept donations to help the refugees from the January earthquake in Haiti. All donations are being used by Pastor Caleb through his organization (Hosean International Ministries) to feed, clothe, house & provide medical supplies for the displaced people of Port au Prince. Make checks out to Moose Lake Covenant Church & write in the memo "Haiti Relief Fund".

New Missionary Prayer booklets are available on the counter in the foyer. Pick one up and pray for our Covenant Missionaries.

Retirement Party
For Robyn Spiess

Robyn has retired after serving for 21 years as our janitor! Please join us for cake and coffee as we express our appreciation on Sunday, March 28th, from 9:00-11:00am (come before or after church service).
